St. James's, October 7.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

September 28, 1775.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants, of the City of Briſtol, at the Guildhall aſſembled, beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty on the preſent Conjuncture of Affairs between Great Britain and your American Colonies.

With Gratitude we acknowledge the many and great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government; during which, the Trade and Commerce of this ancient and loyal City have increaſed to a Degree unknown to former Times, to be attributed only to the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and the many excellent Laws lately paſſed for the Encouragement of thoſe inexhauſtible Sources of Wealth.

Truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavors for the Support of the Religious and Civil Rights of all your Subjects, we cannot but with Aſtoniſhment behold the Conduct of a few diſappointed Men, whoſe ſophiſtical Arguments, and ſeditious Correſpondence, have, in a great Meaſure, been the Occaſion of deluding your American Subjects into open Rebellion.

As Britiſh Subjects, we teſtify our Abhorrence of this unnatural Rebellion; and, though we deeply lament the Misfortunes our American Brethren have brought upon themſelves, yet we cannot but expreſs our warmeſt Wiſhes for the Succeſs of thoſe Meaſures your Majeſty hath adopted in Support of the Legiſlative Authority of Great Britain over all your Dominions, which we truſt will now be permanently eſtabliſhed; and hope, that the Loyalty which prevails here, will ſoon convince our Fellow-Subjects in America of their Error, and bring them back to a juſt Senſe of their Duty and Allegiance; this, and this only, can reſtore them to your Majeſty's Favor, and to that flouriſhing State they ſo long have, and ſtill might have, enjoyed.

May your Majeſty's Councils ever prevail to the extirpating of Licentiouſneſs; and, by a firm Eſtabliſhment of real Liberty, may you triumph over the Enemies of our glorious Conſtitution, and long continue to reign over a free, united, and happy People: To obtain theſe great Ends, we aſſure your Majeſty of our utmoſt Aſſiſtance and Support; and declare, that a zealous Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, a Veneration for the Laws, and an ardent Affection for Order and good Government, are the Principles which direct and animate our Conduct.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable Robert Fulke Greville, One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Warwick, unbiaſſed by Party, unawed by Faction, and not blinded by falſe Patriotiſm, but actuated by a dutiful and ſincere Regard for your Majeſty's Perſon, ariſing from the cleareſt Conviction of your Majeſty's earneſt Wiſhes and Endeavours to promote the Proſperity of Great Britain, humbly preſume to addreſs your Majeſty, with Hearts replete with Gratitude for the innumerable Bleſſings, which, through Providence, and the Wiſdom and Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Government, we now enjoy.

It is with the utmoſt Concern we ſee the Acts of the Britiſh Legiſlature contemned and oppoſed by many of your Majeſty's Subjects in North America, through the Incitement and Miſrepreſentation of artful, deſigning, and ſeditious Men, both at Home and Abroad; who, under the ſpecious Pretext of preſerving the Liberty of the People, are aiming at a total Subverſion of all Law and good Government, and conſequently introducing the worſt of Tyrannies.

And we cannot but ſincerely lament, that they have ſo far ſucceeded, under the Cloak of Mock-Patriotiſm, as to incite Numbers of your Majeſty's American Subjects to be guilty of open Rebellion.

We therefore think we ſhould but ill deſerve the Appellation of Engliſhmen, if we refrained from declaring to our Sovereign, and to the World, our utter Abhorrence of the Authors and Abettors of ſuch outrageous and traiterous Proceedings.

And, at this alarming Criſis, we conſider ourſelves obliged, as loyal Subjects, and real Friends to the true Intereſt of Great Britain and it's ineſtimable Conſtitution, to aſſure your Majeſty, that, as the lenient Treatment of your Majeſty's infatuated and miſled Subjects in America has been inſufficient to induce and prevail on them to return to their Reaſon and Allegiance, we apprehend compulſory and effectual Methods are not only juſtifiable in Law and Conſcience, but abſolutely expedient to be exerted with Vigour and Reſolution.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with Alacrity and Spirit, ſupport, to the utmoſt of our Ability, ſuch Meaſures as your Majeſty ſhall think proper to purſue, for enforcing and maintaining Obedience to the Laws in every Part of your Majeſty's Dominions; entirely confiding in your Majeſty's Goodneſs, becauſe we are fully ſatisfied, that, upon this important Occaſion, every Plan which your Majeſty ſhall adopt will be ſo judiciouſly concerted and wiſely directed, that it will preſerve the Freedom of the Conſtitution inviolate, and advance the Honour and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the Borough of Warwick, this Twenty-eighth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth in Common Council aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Charles Townſhend, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave, at this important Juncture, to lay at your Majeſty's Feet the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our faithful and zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and to the ſupreme Legiſlature of Great Britain.

We have obſerved the tender and humane Reluctance with which your Majeſty and the Parliament have entered upon Meaſures of Coercion againſt your Majeſty's diſobedient Subjects in America; and, at the ſame Time, we cannot but have remarked, with the deepeſt Concern, that the Demands of thoſe deluded Men have riſen in Proportion to the Unwillingneſs they have ſeen in the Parent State to have Recourſe to Meaſures of Force, till at length ſome of your Majeſty's Colonies have dared to enter into an open Rebellion. Their Troops have taken the Field; Money has been raiſed to pay them; and an illegal Aſſembly, now ſitting at Philadelphia, has uſurped, and is executing with a heavy Hand, thoſe Powers which have been denied to the Legiſlature of Great Britain.

In this Situation of Affairs, we think it our Duty to expreſs our Abhorrence of the Rebellion now carrying on in America, and to make a Tender of our Lives and Fortunes towards the Suppreſſion of it; beſeeching your Majeſty to take Care, that your Empire be not diſmembered, nor the ſupreme Authority of the Britiſh Legiſlautre impaired. Exert, Great Sir, your whole Force, ſhould it be neceſſary, in the Support of theſe important Objects; when they are ſecured, we know, from the Experience we have had of the Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Diſpoſition, that you will reſtore Peace to your miſguided Subjects in America, with as much Pleaſure as you have evidently had Pain in entering upon hoſtile Meaſures againſt them.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, the 26th Day of September, 1775.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Charles Townſhend, Eſq; One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants, of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to approach your Majeſty in the moſt loyal Manner, to expreſs the Sentiments of our Hearts in an undiſſembled Duty and Affection to your Majeſty and our happy Conſtitution.

We cannot but lament the Miſery, and abhor the Conduct, of many of our deluded Fellow-Subjects in Parts of your American Colonies, who have plunged themſelves into an open Rebellion, by preferring the Influence of ſeditious Men to the mild Government and tender Protection of their Sovereign and the Supreme Legiſlature.

We equally admire your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in taking the gracious Means to avert their Ruin. The Meaſures now adopted, we truſt, will ſpeedily conquer the Evils, and reſtore the general Tranquility; being agreeable to the Spirit of our Laws, and for the true Honour and Happineſs of all your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, amongſt whom we intreat your Majeſty to believe none shall excel us in the most faithful and grateful Zeal.

Given under our Hands the Thirtieth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

The following Address of the Mayor, Justice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Taunton, in Common Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by Colonel Roberts the Mayor, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and Colonel Roberts had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Justice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgesses, of the Borough and Town of Taunton, in Common-Council assembled;

Truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, beg Leave most humbly to approach the Throne with our unfeigned Thanks for the Happiness which, next under God, we owe to your Majesty's paternal Care and Tenderness, and which, under Divine Providence, have brought this Country to it's present Height of Glory and Power.

The Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Benevolence and Goodness of your Heart, would have preserved a Continuance of those Blessings to the whole Empire, if unfortunately there did not exist here, as well as in America, Men, who, void of all Principle, are hardened enough, at the Expence of every Duty they owe your Majesty and their Country, to become at once (under the Masque of Patriotism) disrespectful to your Sacred Person, and Disturbers of the Publick Peace. Their Machinations have driven headlong the Americans into a Rebellion, which Cowardice only prevents their joining in.

In this alarming Crisis, it is our Duty, and we do most chearfully offer your Majesty our Lives and Properties, in Support of your Person, Crown and Dignity; and we rely on your Majesty, that the indubitable Rights of this Kingdom will be inviolably preserved, and the traiterous Attempts to subvert its Legislative Authority in America, will never be submitted to; nor a successful Rebellion be suffered to sully the Glory of your Majesty's Reign.

Given under our Common Seal, this 22d Day of September, 1775.

John Roberts, Mayor.

The following Address of the Principal Inhabitants, and Manufacturers, of the Borough and Town of Taunton in the County of Somerset, has been presented to His Majesty by John Cabbell, M. D. one of the Aldermen, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and Dr. Cabbell had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Principal Inhabitants and Manufacturers of the Borough and Town of Taunton in the County of Somerset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

TRULY sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, permit us to approach your Throne, and express our Abhorrence of the deluded Spirit which prevails in your Colonies of America, where most of the Inhabitants are in Arms and open Rebellion against your Crown and the Laws of this Realm.

We beg Leave to give your Majesty the most solemn Assurances, that we shall be ready on all Occasions to sacrifice whatsoever is dear and valuable to us, to enable your Majesty to bring your rebellious Subjects in America to a just Sense of their Duty; to defend your Royal Person and illustrious Family; and support our Constitution both in Church and State.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of Montroſe, in Council aſſembled, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of Montroſe, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY impreſſed with a Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt clement Reign, we beg Leave to expreſs our grateful Senſe thereof, and that of the good People of this your ancient Town, whom we at preſent repreſent.

We have beheld, with Surprize and Uneaſineſs, that the forbearing and lenient Meaſures purſued by your Majeſty, in order to bring our Fellow-Subjects in North America to Reflection, Reaſon, and Attention to their own true Intereſt, have, through their Infatuation hitherto, not had the deſired Effect. We ſincerely regret their Folly, condemn their Obſtinacy and Ingratitude, and are much concerned they have allowed themſelves to be ſo deluded as to riſe up in Arms againſt their Mother Country, by which they have been nouriſhed and protected, and who lately, at an Expence of ſo much Blood and Treaſure, reſcued and defended them from their Enemies. But while we lament their Miſconduct, and their Miſimprovement of the great Advantages they enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild Government, we diſapprove of and bear Teſtimony againſt their rebellious Proceedings, and are ſtill filled with greater Aſtoniſhment and Horror at the unnatural and ſeditious Practices of ſome of our own Countrymen, who, under the Maſk of Patriotiſm, but in order only to ſerve their own ſelfiſh and mercenary Deſigns, have we fear inſtigated them to and encouraged them in ſuch illegal and diſorderly Practices.

We very much deteſt and diſclaim all ſuch Proceedings; and we do aſſure your Majeſty, that, as we highly approve of the prudent Meaſures you have hitherto taken in Support of the Honour and Independence of your Crown, and the Supremacy of your Parliament; ſo we will in our ſeveral Stations exert ourſelves to the utmoſt of our Power for ſupporting your Majeſty therein, and in all ſuch future Meaſures as the Wiſdom of your Parliament may find neceſſary for ſecuring and preſerving unimpaired the juſt and conſtitutional Rights of Great Britain over all her Colonies.

We are happy in acquainting your Majeſty, that the Trade and Manufactures in this Town and Neighbourhood have not in the ſmalleſt Degree been hurt or affected by the American Ports being ſhut againſt us; that at preſent our People are all duly employed in their ſeveral Occupations, our Manufactures find a ready Demand, and Peace and Harmony prevail amongſt all your Majeſty's Subjects here.

We ſhould rejoice, and do moſt earneſtly wiſh, that a Reconciliation would yet take Place, that ſo the further Effuſion of human Blood might be prevented, and Peace, with all the Bleſſings thereof, reſtored to your Majeſty's Dominions. But as, through the Wantonneſs and unreaſonable Conduct of the Colonies, this Nation has been long ſeverely agitated and diſtreſſed, great Expence incurred, and the Lives of many of our Countrymen cauſeleſsly taken away, in Defence of the Nation's lawful Rights and Property; we therefore humbly hope, and beg your Majeſty, that vigorous Meaſures be adopted and continued, until ſuch a Settlement takes Place as ſhall be found conſiſtent with the juſt and equitable Claims of America, and the Honour, the Safety and true Intereſt of Great Britain. And for this Purpoſe we pray that God may bleſs your Majeſty's Councils with Wiſdom, grant Succeſs to your Arms, reſtore Peace and brotherly Love to all your Subjects, and ſpare your Majeſty long, very long, to reign with Glory over a happy, a free, and united People.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the reſt of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council, at Montroſe, the 23d of September, 1775, by Alexander Chriſtie, Provoſt.
